

THE WAR V HOOP, DECATUR, MISS., DEC. 20, 1938

Short Interviews With E. C. J. C. Students

PAGE THREE

This page will be devoted during the rest of the session to "Interviews with Students," a different group to appear each issue. The groups are as follows: Newton County, Neshoba County, Scott County, Leake County, Winston County, high school seniors, high school Juniors, Outlaws (those from outside the district), and the faculty. The name of a group will be drawn from the hat just before time for each issue to go to press. Since the name Outlaws was drawn from the hat for this issue, we are herewith presenting . . .

THE OUTLAWS - the Warriors who came from far across the bog to enter our In-Us'en meet the folks. Folks these are the Outlaws. Say! how! - Pleased to meet'chall! of the woods and etc. You'll get acquainted.

Polkville, Mississippi; high school last attended, Polkville High; vocational preference, agriculture; favorite sport, baseball; favorite song, "Daisy Doodle"; favorite food, spinach; favorite book, GONE WITH THE WIND; favorite movie actor, Tyrone Power; editor's note - agriculture, spinach and Mississippi State go together.

JOHN C. TAYLOR: Covington County, Florida, Alabama; classification, sophomore; post office, 910 Hughes Street, Florida, Alabama; high school last attended, Covington County High; vocational preference, radio operator; greatest ambition, fly a plane; senior college preference, Mississippi State; ideal of the opposite sex, a comely girl with beautiful personality; favorite sport, swimming; favorite song, "Roses of Picardy"; favorite food, raisin pie; favorite book, THE MUCKER; favorite movie actor and actress, Gable and Loy; editor's note - "Hot air" salesman; a swell fella with gobs of gab.

JAMES ODIS THORNHILL: Clark County, Crandall, Mississippi; classification, freshman; high school last attended, Beat Four High; vocational preference, a seven-inch plow back of a 1700-pound mule; greatest ambition, play left tackle on Decatur's 1939 team; senior college preference, Miss. State; ideal of the opposite sex, either blond, brunette, or a redhead; favorite sport, basketball; favorite song, "There are more Pretty Girls Than One"; favorite food, home cooking; favorite book, COUSIN TOMMY; favorite movie actor and actress, STEPPIN' FETTER; editor's note - every Thorshill there should have a rose.

RACHEL HUNTER: Jasper County, Georgia; classification, sophomore; high school last attended, Stringer High; vocational preference, home economics; greatest ambition, aeroplanes; favorite sport, college preference, Tennessee; ideal of the opposite sex, neatness, friendliness, cheerfulness, intelligence, considerate, and loyal; favorite sport, hiking; favorite song, "Breeze"; favorite food, French fried potatoes and ice box pie; favorite book, magazine stories; favorite movie actor and actress, Tyrone Power and Alice Faye; editor's note - You sure do fly high.

WINNIE LOU BRYANT: Jasper County, Stringer, Mississippi; classification, freshman; post office, Stringer, Miss.; high school last attended, Stringer High; vocational preference, medicine; greatest ambition, discover cure of some disease; senior college preference, University of Alabama; ideal of the opposite sex, site sex, brunette, tall, courteous, neat, athletic and ambitious; favorite sport, hiking; favorite song, "Moonlight and Shadows"; favorite food, lemon pie; favorite book, HAPPINESS HILL; favorite movie actor and actress, Spencer Tracy and Joan Crawford; editor's note - Winnie, "meanie", minny, moo. . . We would like to "Stringer" along with you.

WILHELMINA MUCKELRATH: Jasper County, Bay Springs, Mississippi; classification, freshman; post office, Bay Springs, Mississippi, Box 104; high school last attended, Decatur Agricultural High; vocational preference, accountant; greatest ambition, to travel; senior college preference, Bowling Green Business College; ideal of the opposite sex, tall, dark, and handsome; favorite sport, swimming; favorite song, "Sophisticated Swing"; favorite food, date loaf; favorite book, LITTLE WOMEN; favorite movie actor and actress, Spencer Tracy and Myrna Loy; editor's note - Willa, weep for us - you're such a "swell" gal we're afraid you'll bust, when you read this.

HELEN HADDOCK: Clarke County, Mississippi; classification, sophomore; post office,

she has a good "Driver."

BILLIE GREGORY: Attala County, Zama, Mississippi; classification, sophomore; high school last attended, Zama Vocational High; vocational preference, engineer; greatest ambition, success; senior college preference, Miss. State; ideal of the opposite sex, intelligence, fairness and personal appearance; favorite sport, basketball; favorite song, "America"; favorite food, beefsteak; favorite book, IVANHOE; favorite movie actor and actress, William Powell and Ginger Rogers; editor's note - Wild man, John Billy! The ladies' man!

JOHN FRANKLIN SHIELDS: Sims, Lowndes County, Columbus, Mississippi; classification, freshman; high school last attended, Lee High School; vocational preference, engineering; greatest ambition, to intercept a pass in an important football game and make a touchdown; senior college preference, Miss. State; ideal of the opposite sex, to cook, cuddle, kiss and keep house; favorite sport, football; favorite song, "Small Fry"; favorite food, angel-food cake; favorite book, A TALE OF TWO CITIES; favorite movie actor and actress, Mickey Rooney and Dorothy Lamour; editor's note - from the length of this article, he must have had three grandpas.

HERMAN FULLER: Chickasaw County, Okolona, Mississippi; high school last attended, Okolona High; vocational preference, business man; greatest ambition, to have a business of my own; senior college preference, Ole Miss; ideal of the opposite sex, never let them have their own way; favorite sport, football; favorite food, cheddar pie; favorite book, GONE WITH THE WIND; favorite movie actor and actress, Nelson Eddy; editor's note - Margaret's Her. man Fuller not connected with Fuller Brothers.

MARGARET ARNEY: Jasper County, Montrose, Mississippi; classification, freshman; high school last attended, Montrose High; vocational preference, to be the leader of a swing band; greatest ambition, to sleep late every morning; senior college preference, Millsaps; ideal of the opposite sex, wealthy, winsome, wise, woolful, wishful and witty; favorite sport, pitching horse shoes; favorite song, "We Both Have Chewed the Same Stick of Gum"; favorite food, possum and taters; favorite book, WHEN PA-PA THREW THE BOOTJACK; favorite movie actor and actress, Spencer Tracy and Fannie Brice; editor's note - All you need is a baton.

BILL DAVENPORT: Chickasaw County, Okolona, Mississippi; classification, freshman; high school last attended, Okolona High; vocational preference, the study of music; greatest ambition, to be a dentist in a large city; senior college preference, Millsaps; ideal of the opposite sex, treat them as they treat you; favorite sport, football; favorite song, "I'm Getting Sentimental Over You"; favorite food, fresh fish; favorite book, GONE WITH THE WIND; favorite movie actor and actress, John Paine and Olivia De Havilland; editor's note - plenty of plush - this Davenport.

SCHLEY PURVIS: Smith County, Polkville, Mississippi; classification, sophomore; post office, over our eyes, such fancy language

MARVIN BLANKS: Lauderdale County, Collinsville, Mississippi; classification, sophomore; high school last attended, Collinsville; vocational preference, lawyer; greatest ambition, live in Lake; senior college preference, S. T. C.; ideal of the opposite sex, beats me; favorite sport, basketball; favorite song, "The Foot Floozy"; favorite food, truner; favorite book, GONE WITH THE WIND; favorite movie actor and actress, Robert Taylor and Alice Faye; editor's note - How can they beat you and you liking puns? Really, aren't puns your favorite food?

DAVID GARY: Yazoo County, Yazoo, Mississippi; classification, freshman; high school last attended, Central High; vocational preference, teacher; greatest ambition, to teach; ideal of the opposite sex, sweet; favorite sport, basketball; favorite song, "The Honoring Girl"; favorite food, hamburger; favorite book, THE HONORING GIRL; favorite movie actor and actress, Franchot Tone and Barbara Stanwyck; editor's note - Opal Dayne can't afford to be a grass widow - she'd be a grass-hopper.

WENONAH "WHITNEY" ALFORD: Kemper County, DeKalb, Mississippi; classification, sophomore; high school last attended, Morton High; vocational preference, home economics; greatest ambition, to roll my roommate; senior college preference, M. S. C. W.; ideal of the opposite sex, polite, kind, sweet, intelligent and cheerful; favorite sport, football; favorite song, "My Verie"; favorite food, hamburgers; favorite book, "Eben Holden"; favorite movie actor and actress, Don Ameche and Myrna Loy; editor's note - Congratulations on practically succeeding in your ambition.

KELLEY HERRING: Walker County, Jasper, Alabama; classification, freshman; high school last attended, Walker County High School; vocational preference, medicine; greatest ambition, to be an important person wherever I live; senior college preference, Auburn; ideal of the opposite sex, intelligent, pretty, charming and an optimist; favorite sport, football; favorite song, "Stardust"; favorite food, rare steak and fried eggs; favorite book, GONE WITH THE WIND; favorite movie actor and actress, Alice Faye and Ronald Karloff; editor's note - Your vocational preference and favorite actor go well together.

ANNETTE LONCINO: Lawrence County, Silver Creek, Mississippi; classification, freshman; high school last attended, Newton County A. H. S.; vocational preference, home economics; greatest ambition, to be head dietitian in a large hospital; senior college preference, M. S. C. W. or University of Tenn.; ideal of the opposite sex, sincere, humorous, courteous, brunette, brown eyes; favorite sport, horseback riding; favorite song, "Blue Danube Waltz"; favorite food, chocolate pie; favorite book, GONE WITH THE WIND; favorite movie actor and actress, William Powell and Anita Louise; editor's note - If Annette gets stuck, she shouldn't tor's note - Stars fell on Alabama.

They dug one up and his name is Kelly. The brightest guy on the campus.

THOMAS A. WILKERSON: Smith County, Forest, Mississippi; classification, sophomore; high school last attended, Pineville High; vocational preference, electrical engineering; greatest ambition, find a use for cockleburrs; senior college preference, Miss. State; ideal of the opposite sex, they are something to avoid; favorite sport, hunting; favorite song, "Hasty Pudding"; favorite food, banana pudding; favorite book, ROBINSON CRUSOE; favorite movie actor and actress, Will Rogers and Audrey; editor's note - any guy from Sullivan's Hollow is O. K. We don't want to be teased! This gent is okay.

OPAL DAYNE HOPPER: Kemper County, DeKalb, Mississippi; classification, freshman; high school last attended, Newton County; vocational preference, interior decorator; greatest ambition, decorate a window; senior college preference, M. S. C. W.; ideal of the opposite sex, He'll darn socks and set clocks; favorite sport, dancing; favorite song, "Stardust"; favorite food, dill pickle; favorite book, "THE HONORING GIRL"; favorite movie actor and actress, Franchot Tone and Barbara Stanwyck; editor's note - Opal Dayne can't afford to be a grass widow - she'd be a grass-hopper.

MABEL PALMER: Tippah County, Falkner, Mississippi; classification, sophomore; high school last attended, Falkner High; vocational preference, teaching; greatest ambition, to have all the hamburgers I can eat; senior college preference, Blue Mountain; ideal of the opposite sex, being a gentleman, etc.; favorite sport, swimming; favorite song, "Stardust"; favorite food, fruit cake and coffee; favorite book, THE DOCTOR; favorite movie actor and actress, Wayne Morris and Alice Faye; editor's note - Gentlemen buy hamburgers.

C. R. PEAGLER: Rankin County, Morton, Mississippi; classification, sophomore; high school last attended, Branch; vocational preference, agronomist; greatest ambition, to do something I can't do; senior college preference, Miss. State; ideal of the opposite sex, they are sheep in wolves' clothing; favorite sport, marbles; favorite song, "Cold Tater Pie"; favorite food, rice gravy; favorite book, DAVID COPPERFIELD; favorite movie actor and actress, Clark Gable and Myrna Loy; editor's note - Maybe you should be a sheep shearer.

PERCY LEE: Shelby County, Montevallo, Alabama; classification, sophomore; high school last attended, Montevallo High; vocational preference, dentistry; greatest ambition, repeal the law of gravitation; senior college preference, Auburn; ideal of the opposite sex, more power to them; favorite sport, basketball; favorite song, "Josephine"; favorite food, pommes de terre en robe de chambre; favorite book, GONE WITH THE WIND; favorite movie actor and actress, Bing Crosby and Margaret Sullivan; editor's note - Baked potatoes, counter boy - you can't "peal" the wool

OSCAR LEON DRIVER, JR.: Washington County, Plymouth, North Carolina; classification, freshman; high school last attended, Plymouth High; vocational preference, embalmer and undertaker; greatest ambition, embalm Mae West; senior college preference, some dead school; ideal of the opposite sex, sweet and kindhearted; favorite sport, shoot snooker with the lite sport; favorite song, "Every-eight I Have Is Yours"; favorite thing I have is Yours; favorite food, goose liver; favorite book, FRESHMAN ENGLISH; favorite movie actor and actress, Alice Faye and Bill Robinson; editor's note - Go West, young man, go West.

ARLESE LEWIS: Jasper County, Rose, Mississippi; classification, sophomore; high school last attended, Rose Hill; vocational preference, now an English teacher, later???; greatest ambition, to eat without getting hit; senior college preference, M. S. C. W.; ideal of the opposite sex, tall, handsome, intelligent, ambitious, and generous; favorite sport, horse-back riding; favorite song, "Roses in Picardy"; favorite food, cream of tomato soup; favorite book, GONE WITH THE WIND; favorite movie actor and actress, Robert Young and Dorothy Lamour; editor's note - Sister, you can't get fat teaching English - there's too much work; as to the "later" - well, maybe!

NED CARY: Shelby County, Montevallo, Alabama; classification, freshman; high school last attended, Montevallo High; greatest ambition, get married; senior college preference, Anderson; ideal of the opposite sex, and or better; favorite sport, football; favorite song, "Marie"; favorite food, chicken; favorite book, GONE WITH THE WIND; favorite movie actor and actress, Franchot Tone and Barbara Stanwyck; editor's note - You are a wimmen, son!

JANET WILKINS: Madison County, Madison, Mississippi; classification, sophomore; high school last attended, Madison High; vocational preference, a doctor's wife; greatest ambition, to be a doctor's wife; favorite sport, sex, blonde, ideal manners, ambitious; favorite food, football; favorite song, "Sleepy People"; favorite book, THE WITNESS; favorite movie actor and actress, Spencer Tracy and Norma Sheare; favorite song, Florence Nightingale; favorite food, cow college. I like the thought of it.

JOHN E. BRY: Attala County, Attala, Mississippi; classification, sophomore; high school last attended, Attala High; vocational preference, agriculture; greatest ambition, to have a good education; ideal of the opposite sex, sweet and dignified; favorite sport, baseball; favorite food, beefsteak; favorite book, GONE WITH THE WIND; favorite movie actor and actress, Robert Taylor and Alice Faye; editor's note - This gentleman likes beefsteak. He gets the tenderest part of beefsteak at Ole E. C. J. C. - the

J. J. KELLY: Winston County, Addison, Alabama; classification, freshman; high school last attended, Addison, Alabama; vocational preference, agricultural engineer; greatest ambition, to make an A in English; senior college preference, Mississippi State or Texas A. & M.; ideal of the opposite sex, tongue tied and trusting; favorite sport, football; favorite song, "Star Dust On the Moon"; favorite food, fish roe; favorite book, GOOD EARTH; favorite movie actor and actress, Spencer Tracy and Alice Faye; editor's